

Ralph Caudle, First Term (2013)
Professional Representative

Ralph joined IKO Real Estate as Executive Vice President and principle of the company in 2006. He earned a bachelors degree in Consumer Economics from the University of Maryland in 1982. In 1994, Ralph earned the Community Associations Institute's (CAI) Professional Community Association Manager (PCAM) designation and in 1996, earned CAI's Certified Manager of Community Associations (CMCA) designation.

Throughout Ralph's community management career, he has been an active volunteer with the Washington Area Chapter of the Community Associations Institute and served two terms on the Chapter's Board of Directors. With 24 years of community management experience, Ralph was most recently the Senior Vice President in charge of the Community Association Management Department of one of the metro areas largest management companies. He has also served on the Advisory Board to the Residential Property Management program at Virginia Tech.